

The Commission on Parliamentary Reform Copyright Licence

You are permitted to use and re-use the Information that is available under this licence freely and flexibly, subject to the following conditions.

Using Information under this licence

Use of copyright and database right material expressly made available under this licence (the 'Information') indicates your acceptance of the terms and conditions below.

The Commission on Parliamentary Reform ("the Commission") grants you a worldwide, royalty free, perpetual, non-exclusive licence to use the Information subject to the conditions below.

This licence does not affect your freedom under fair dealing or fair use or any other copyright or database right exceptions and limitations.

You are free to:

- copy, publish, distribute and transmit the Information;
- adapt the Information;
- exploit the Information commercially and non-commercially, for example, by
- combining it with other Information, or by including it in your own product or application.

You must (where you do any of the above):

Acknowledge the source of the Information by including the following attribution statement and, where possible, provide a link to this licence:

Contains information licenced under the Commission on Parliamentary Reform

These are important conditions of this licence and if you fail to comply with them the rights granted to you under this licence, or any similar licence granted by the Commission on Parliamentary Reform, will end automatically.

Exemptions

This licence does not cover:

- personal data in the Information;
- Information that has not been accessed by way of publication or disclosure under information access legislation by or with the consent of the Commission;
- third party rights the Commission is not authorised to license; and
- other intellectual property rights.

Definitions

In this licence, the terms below have the following meanings:

- 'Information' means information protected by copyright or by database right (for example, literary and artistic works, content, data and source code) offered for use under the terms of this licence.

- 'Use' means doing any act which is restricted by copyright or database right, whether in the original medium or in any other medium, and includes without limitation distributing, copying, adapting, modifying as may be technically necessary to use it in a different mode or format.

- 'You', 'you' and 'your' means the natural or legal person, or body of persons corporate or incorporate, acquiring rights in the Information (whether the Information is obtained directly from the Licensor or otherwise) under this licence.
