

We believe more consideration needs to be given to the Gaelic Language (Scotland) Act 2005.

A review of the Act is now required in order to ensure that adequate provision is made for the necessary and relevant support for the Gaelic language.

We also believe that the Parliament would benefit by moving away from party politics and instead aim for people to represent their area and work in a collaborative way for all of Scotland.

Gary Wallace